Description of the Office of the State Auditor

The Office of the State Auditor serves as a watchdog for Minnesota taxpayers by helping to ensure financial integrity, accountability, and cost-effectiveness in local governments throughout the state.

Through financial, compliance, and special audits, the State Auditor oversees and ensures that local government funds are used for the purposes intended by law and that local governments hold themselves to the highest standards of financial accountability.

The State Auditor performs approximately 250 financial and compliance audits per year and has oversight responsibilities for over 4,300 local units of government throughout the state. The office currently maintains five divisions:

Audit Practice - conducts financial and legal compliance audits for local governments;

Government Information - collects and analyzes financial information for cities, towns, counties, and special districts;

Legal/Special Investigations - provides legal analysis and counsel to the Office and responds to outside inquiries about Minnesota local government law; as well as investigates allegations of misfeasance, malfeasance, and nonfeasance in local government.

Pension Oversight - monitors investment, financial, and actuarial reporting for over 700 public pension funds;

Tax Increment Financing (TIF) - promotes compliance and accountability in local governments' use of TIF through financial and compliance audits;

The State Auditor serves on the State Executive Council, State Board of Investment, Land Exchange Board, Public Employee's Retirement Association Board, Minnesota Housing Finance Agency, and the Rural Finance Authority Board.

Scope and Methodology of Report

This report shows the costs of lobbying services provided to Minnesota local governments and their associations. The report is prepared in accordance with Minnesota Statutes §6.76, which states:

"(a) On or before January 31 of each year, all counties, cities, school districts, metropolitan agencies, regional railroad authorities, and the metropolitan council shall report to the state auditor, on forms prescribed by the auditor, their estimated expenditures paid for the previous calendar year to a lobbyist as defined in section 10A.01, subdivision 21, except payments to associations of local governments that are reported under paragraph (b), and to any staff person not registered as a lobbyist, over 25 percent of whose time is spent during the legislative session on legislative matters.

(b) Associations of local governments subject to this section shall report annually, on or before January 31, to the state auditor and the association's members the proportionate amount of each member's dues spent for lobbying purposes."

In addition to collecting the information prescribed in Minnesota Statutes §6.76, the Office of the State Auditor has begun requiring local governments and their associations to report more detailed information regarding the billing practices of those hired to provide lobbying services, and other costs related to lobbying services such as administration and overhead. The change was made because the definition of “lobbyist” and “lobbying” in Minnesota Statutes and Rules were different, and resulted in wide variances of what was reported as an expenditure on lobbying services.<sup>1</sup> The State Auditor’s concern was that local governments and their associations were understating the true costs of their lobbying effort because they were excluding overhead, administration, and other costs related to lobbying services. The revised instructions and forms first introduced for the 2003 period reflect the inclusion of the definitions of lobbyist and lobbying set forth in statute and rules.<sup>2</sup>

The Office of the State Auditor has collected and published data on the lobbying services costs of local governments since 1989. This is the seventh year that associations whose membership includes local governments were required to report their lobbying services expenditures to the State Auditor. Because of the inclusion of local government associations, the data presented in this report are not comparable with reports prior to the 1997 report. This report summarizes expenditures on local government lobbying services during calendar year 2004 and is intended to inform Minnesota citizens and policy makers of the amount spent by their local governments to attempt to influence public policy in the state.

<sup>1</sup>A “lobbyist” as defined in Minn. Stat. § 10A.01, Subd. 21, is a person who is paid “for the purpose of attempting to influence legislative or administrative action, or the official action of a metropolitan governmental unit, by communicating or urging others to communicate with public or local officials.” This definition is broadened if the person is an employee of a local government to also include, “time spent monitoring legislative or administrative action...and related research, analysis, compilation and dissemination of information relating to legislative or administrative policies in the state or the policies of metropolitan governmental units.” “Lobbying” includes not only communication, but also “any activity that directly supports this communication.” Minn. Rule 4511.0100, Subp. 3.

The reporting forms used to collect information on the expenditures by local governments and their associations for lobbyists and lobbying are presented as appendices in this report. The list of local government associations was developed by reviewing a list of all associations that were registered with the Campaign Finance and Public Disclosure Board. While the Auditor's Office attempted to identify all associations of local governments and provide them forms to fulfill their reporting requirement, it is the associations' responsibility to comply with the reporting requirement. The expenditures on lobbying services are the amounts self-reported by local governments and local government associations.

Local Government Lobbying Services in 2004

Summary of 2004 Local Government Expenditures on Lobbying Services

According to reports filed with the Office of the State Auditor, local governments spent a total of $6,258,789 on lobbying activities in 2004. This represents an increase of $176,786 or 2.9 percent from the amount spent in 2003.

Local governments reported spending $6,258,789 on lobbying services in 2004.

Sixty-four reporting local governments (three more than in 2003) directly employed or hired contract lobbyists in 2004. These local governments spent a total of $2,942,404 on staff and contract lobbyists. This was $42,286 or 1.5 percent more than in 2003. Staff and contract lobbyists are paid to influence legislative, administrative, or official action of governmental units in Minnesota. These expenditures do not include dues and membership fees paid to local government organizations.

In addition to the $2.9 million paid directly to staff and contract lobbyists, local governments paid dues of $9,137,582 in 2004 to local government associations (hereinafter referred to as associations) that also represented their interests before the legislature. These dues represent an expenditure of taxpayer dollars.<sup>1</sup> These associations spent $3,316,385 on lobbyists and lobbying in 2004. This represents an increase of 4.2 percent over 2003. Of the $3.3 million spent on lobbyists and lobbying, $2,759,342 was funded exclusively through dues. In 2003, local governments paid association dues of approximately $9.0 million, of which $3,181,885 was spent on lobbying activities.

Payments Made to Staff and Contract Lobbyists

Sixty-four of Minnesota's cities, counties, school districts, and metropolitan agencies directly employed staff and/or contracted with professional lobbyists to represent their interests before the legislature. Tables 1 through 3 detail these lobbying expenditures.

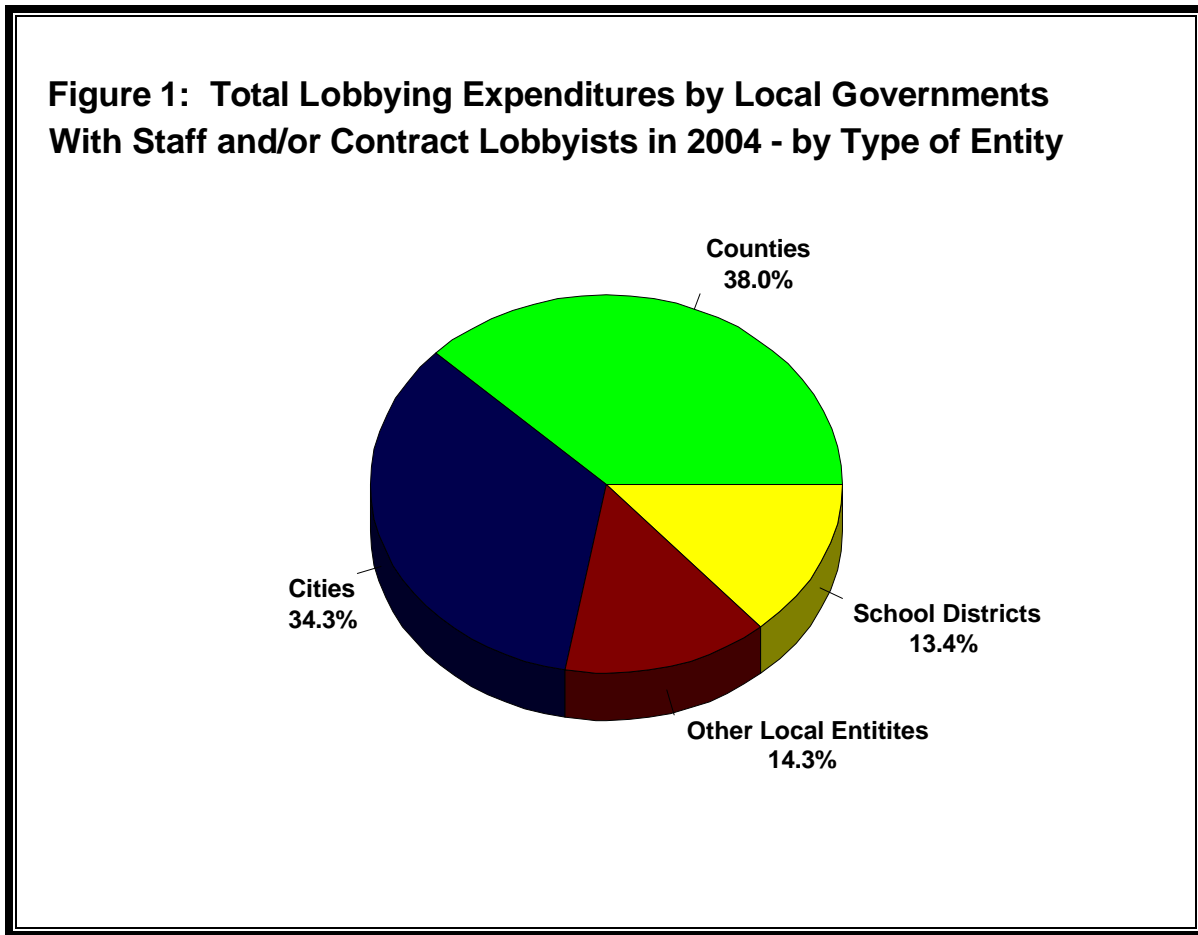

Of the 64 entities reporting to have had employed lobbying staff or hired contract lobbyists in 2004:

- Twenty-three cities and city component units reported a combined total of $1,008,049 in lobbying services expenditures;
- Twenty counties and county component units reported a combined total of $1,118,044 in lobbying services expenditures;
- Fourteen education entities reported a combined total of $395,464 in lobbying services expenditures; and,
- Seven metropolitan or joint powers entities reported a combined total of $420,847 in lobbying services expenditures.

<sup>1</sup> Dues are the main source of revenues for associations of local governments, but they also receive other public dollars.

Local Governments Spending the Most on Staff and Contract Lobbyists

Seven of the 64 local governments that directly employed lobbying staff or hired contract lobbyists reported over $100,000 in lobbying services expenditures, for a total of $1,250,609. These seven local governments accounted for 42.5 percent of the total amount paid to contract and staff lobbyists in 2004. The seven local governments are:

City of Minneapolis	$325,815	Anoka County	$128,169
Hennepin County	$285,669	Ramsey County	$114,279
City of St. Paul	$144,043	Minneapolis Parks & Recreation Board	$112,385
Metropolitan Airports Commission	$140,250

Trends in Expenditures for Staff and Contract Lobbyists

The number of entities that reported expenditures on contract and staff lobbyists went from 61 in 2003 to 64 in 2004. The increase in the number of entities reporting employee/contract lobbying expenditures was a factor in expenditures rising 1.5 percent between 2003 and 2004. The slight increase was the first since 2001.

Reliance on Contract Lobbyists

The use of contract lobbyists was more common than having employee lobbyists for those governments that utilized these types of lobbying services. Contract lobbyists accounted for $1,862,603 or 63.3 percent of the total amount spent by those governments using contract or staff lobbyists. Local governments spent $977,733 on employee lobbyists to represent the local government's interests before the legislature and other governmental bodies. In addition, local governments reported an additional $102,068 on overhead costs related to lobbying services.

During 2004:

- 5 local units of government relied entirely upon their employees to represent them at the legislature;
- 50 units of government relied entirely upon contract lobbyists to represent their interests; and,
- 9 local units of government hired contract lobbyists and used their own employees for lobbying the legislature.

Lobbying Services Expenditures by Associations of Local Governments

While 64 local governments opted to hire lobbyists or use employees to lobby on their behalf, most local governments relied on various local government organizations to represent their interests at the legislature.<sup>2</sup> These local government organizations receive the majority of their funding from membership dues and other public funds. Some associations representing local governments not only lobby on behalf of their members, but also act as service organizations. Groups such as the League of Minnesota Cities and the Association of Minnesota Counties provide a wide range of services to their members. For these associations, lobbying services account for a smaller share of their overall expenditures.

Other associations are formed for the explicit purpose of lobbying the legislature on a specific issue or range of issues for which the members share a common interest. Most of these associations hire a lobbyist or a lobbying firm to influence legislative, administrative, or other official actions at the state, regional or metropolitan level of government. The dues paid by members of these associations generally represent a percentage of the total amount paid to a contracted lobbyist. While it is expected that most member dues from these arrangements will be used for lobbying, some associations reported that less than ten percent of dues were used for lobbying services.

<sup>2</sup> The local government organizations identified in this report do not include various professional organizations that lobby on behalf of specific professional occupations within local governments. For example, Education Minnesota is registered with the Campaign Finance and Public Disclosure Board. However, because the organization does not directly represent school districts or school district management personnel, its lobbying expenditures are not included in this report.

Trends in Expenditures on Lobbying Services by Associations of Local Governments

Twenty-six associations representing local governments reported expenditures on lobbying services totaling $3,316,385 for 2004. Of the $3.3 million spent on lobbying, $2,759,342 or 83 percent was funded through the dues of the association members. Total expenditures for lobbying/lobbyists by associations increased $134,500 or 4 percent over 2003. Expenditures on lobbying/lobbyists by associations have risen 71 percent in five years. Some of the growth may reflect the efforts of the State Auditor to better define lobbying activities.

Figure 4 shows expenditures on lobbying services by associations for the years 2000 to 2004.

Association Lobbying by Type of Entity

The associations reporting lobbying expenditures included:

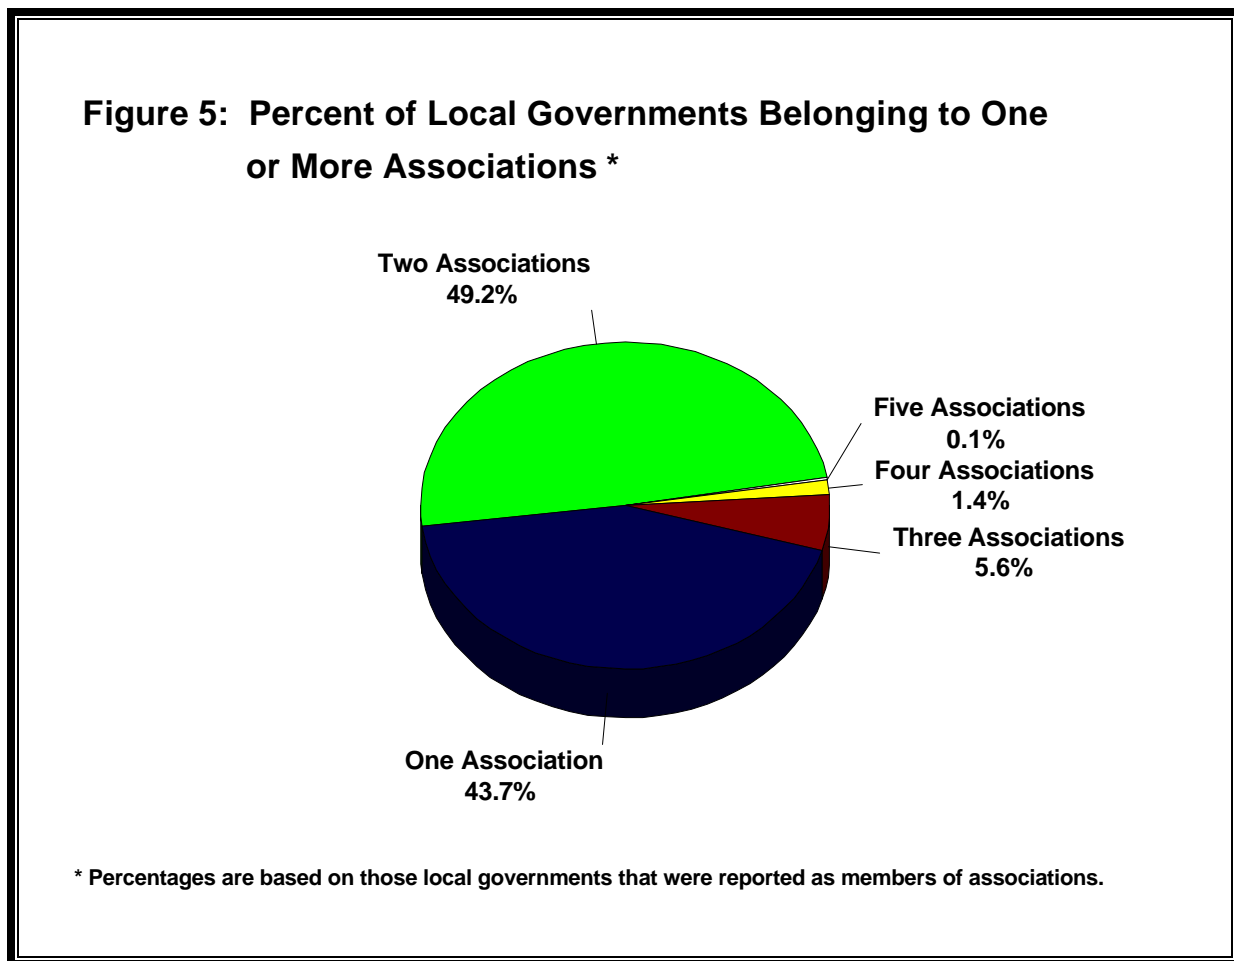

- Eight organizations that represented the interests of cities;
- Four organizations that represented the interests of counties;

- Four organizations that represented the interests of school districts;
- One organization that represented the interests of townships;
- Two organizations that represented other local government interests; and
- Seven organizations that represented more than one type of local government.

Many Local Governments Belong to Multiple Associations

While it is common for local governments to belong to at least one association, some local units belong to several. There were 105 local units of government (7 percent) that paid dues to three or more associations. While there are no restrictions regarding the number of associations to which local governments may belong, good fiscal policy would dictate that local governments evaluate whether they are receiving overlapping services.

Associations with the Highest Expenditures on Lobbying Services

Among the 26 local government organizations that lobbied the legislature on behalf of their local government members, eleven organizations reported expenditures on lobbying/lobbyists in excess of $100,000.

The organizations that reported total lobbying expenditures exceeding $100,000 in 2004 were:

Coalition of Greater MN Cities	$643,446	Schools for Equity in Education	$199,080
League of Minnesota Cities	$457,390	Association of Metropolitan School Districts	$147,775
Minnesota School Boards Association	$389,742	Minnesota Association of Small Cities	$137,484
Association of Minnesota Counties	$298,492	Association of Metropolitan Municipalities	$120,272
Metropolitan Inter-County Association	$255,389	North Metro Crossing Coalition	$106,000

Compensation Paid to Firms or Employees for Lobbying and Non-lobbying Services

In 2004, Minnesota local governments or associations of local governments paid eight firms $100,000 or more to provide lobbying services. The 8 firms receiving the largest payments from local governments or associations of local governments were:

Flaherty & Hood, P.A.	$1,304,714	Government & Enterprises Services	$114,500
Messerli & Kramer	$261,975	Rice, Michaels & Walther, LLP	$107,383
McGrann, Shea, Anderson, Carnival, Straughn, & Lamb	$185,268	Lockridge, Grindal, & Nauen	$105,456
Capitol Gains, Inc.	$140,796	Legislative Associates	$103,975

Compensation Paid to Firms for “Non-Lobbying” Activities

Several firms, in addition to lobbying services, billed their clients substantial additional amounts for “non-lobbying” services. For example, Flaherty and Hood billed local governments and their associations $779,831 in lobbying services and an additional $524,883 in “non-lobbying” services for a total of $1,304,714. Messerli and Kramer billed $176,834 in lobbying services and an additional $85,141 in “non-lobbying” services for a total of $261,975. These payments paid to lobbying/law firms that are designated as “non-lobbying” expenditures may represent a possible understatement of lobbying/lobbyist expenditures.

Expenditures on Lobbying Services by Associations May be Greatly Understated

While some of the reported expenditures on lobbying services may already seem high, the State Auditor’s Office believes that the actual amount spent on lobbying activities could be much higher than reported here. Although the State Auditor broadened the scope of services that should be counted as a lobbying expenditure for 2004, there still seems to be an understatement of the true costs. There appears to be a significant difference in the calculation of costs incurred depending upon how the definition of “lobbying” is interpreted when reporting costs to this office, and how a “lobbyist” is defined under Minnesota Statutes depending whether or not the lobbyist is an employee of a political subdivision.<sup>3</sup> The Auditor’s Office believes that the standard for reporting lobbying

<sup>3</sup> A “lobbyist” as defined in Minn. Stat. § 10A.01, Subd. 21, is a person who is paid “for the purpose of attempting to influence legislative or administrative action, or the official action of a metropolitan governmental unit, by communicating or urging others to communicate with public or local officials.” This definition is broadened if the person is an employee of a local government to also include, “time spent monitoring legislative or administrative action...and related research, analysis, compilation and dissemination of information relating to legislative or administrative policies in the state or the policies of metropolitan governmental units.” “Lobbying” includes not only communication, but also “any activity that directly supports this communication.” Minn. Rule 4511.0100, Subp. 3.

costs should include all the expenses incurred for activities that support lobbying and lobbyists to better show the actual costs of the lobbying effort.

Examination of Association Contracts and Agreements with Members and Firms Hired to Provide Lobbying Services

Due to concerns with data reported in 2003, the Auditor's Office examined the by-laws and contracts of local government associations last year. The review found that some were primarily service organizations with a small lobbying function, while others existed primarily as a lobbying agent for their members. Those that we identified as primarily service organizations included the League of Minnesota Cities, the Association of Minnesota Counties, the Minnesota School Boards Association, and other smaller groups such as the Minnesota Association of Watershed Districts. For associations such as the Coalition of Greater Minnesota Cities that exist primarily to provide lobbying services for their membership, the Auditor's Office requested copies of their contracts with lobbying firms to get a better understanding of the types of "non-lobbying" services that were being provided by firms. In addition, the State Auditor requested member agreements, association mission statements and bylaws, and recruitment materials so that we could better understand the stated purpose of each of these types of associations. Based on the information in the contracts, most if not all services provided by firms should have been considered part of lobbying services as defined by the State Auditor's Office. The most frequently non-reported activities included legislative monitoring, conferences (at which legislative agendas were considered), member communication, and bill summaries.<sup>4</sup>

Another way to look at the issue of underreporting lobbying services expenses is to consider the difference between what local governments report as lobbying services and what associations report. In 2004, all local governments that reported contracts with firms or individuals for lobbying services reported the full value of the contract as a lobbying expenditure. These local governments presume that all compensation paid to the lobbying firm or lobbyist is part of the lobbying effort.

In contrast, many associations actually have their lobbying firm complete the lobbying form. These firms appear to exclude many of the services they provide from the total cost of the lobbying effort. If associations are being billed for something other than what the contract says, the membership of the associations should demand greater oversight of the contracts and billing. Again, the Auditor's Office would argue that these firms are primarily hired to provide lobbying services and the full value of the contracts are a better reflection of the true costs of lobbying services.

<sup>4</sup> Specific words and phrases are not required to classify material as a lobbying disbursement. Rather, the controlling factor is whether "the purpose of the material is tied to some action of the legislature," even if the association may view it as educational. See Campaign Finance and Disclosure Board, Advisory Opinion 347.

Conclusion

In the role as watchdog for Minnesota taxpayers, it is the State Auditors' responsibility to examine how taxpayer dollars are spent. Many Minnesotans continue to find it troubling that local governments spend taxpayer dollars in hopes of securing more taxpayer dollars. The lobbying activities of local governments and associations of local governments are an oversight concern because these entities are funded with taxpayer dollars. In its examination of local government lobbying services, the State Auditor has identified some areas of concern.

The State Auditor's Office believes that because taxpayer dollars are involved, the public has an inherent interest in knowing the amount spent by associations of local governments to influence public policies. The State Auditor would argue that all spending of those associations primarily organized to provide lobbying services furthers the lobbying effort. The State Auditor's Office has broadened the scope and definition of activities that constitute lobbying services. The definition of lobbying services includes costs such as salaries and benefits, research, analysis, compilation and dissemination of information, legislation monitoring, web sites, membership activities, and conferences. However, many associations appear to still be excluding activities that contribute to the furtherance of the lobbying effort. The public should know the full costs of activities used to support lobbying services.

The Office of the State Auditor believes that local governments have a right to have their interests, and the interests of their citizens, represented at the legislature and other bodies of government. However, local governments would be well served to evaluate the amount they are spending on these activities. Local governments need to explore whether their level of expenditures on lobbying services hinders their ability to fund other priorities. For example, local governments that have their own intergovernmental relations staff, and hire outside lobbyists, and belong to multiple associations, could eliminate some expenditures and still have their interests well-represented. Like all other governmental services, lobbying activities must be evaluated against the other priorities of the local government.

Instructions for the Local Government Expenditure Reporting Form

This information is collected pursuant to Minnesota Statutes §§ 6.551, 6.52, 6.76, and 16C.05 subd. 5.

General Information

Include the name and address of the entity, the name of the person completing the form, and contact information for the person completing the form, such as phone and fax numbers and an email address.

Contract Lobbyists

A contract lobbyist is any individual or firm, excluding employees of the local government, that meets the definition of a lobbyist as defined in Minnesota Statute § 10A.01, subdivision 11. (Please refer to the reporting requirement document for the full definition).

Identify all contract lobbyists retained by your local government by name and address, and indicate the total amount paid to that individual or firm for lobbying the legislature and/or state administrative agencies, including the amount paid for expenses of that individual or firm.

Expenditures for contract lobbyists do NOT include dues paid to local government associations. These associations report membership and lobbying expenditures directly to the Office of the State Auditor. Examples of these associations include the League of Minnesota Cities and the Minnesota School Boards Association.

Employees of the Local Government

Identify all employees of the local government who spend 25 percent of their time during the legislative session on legislative matters. For each employee listed, provide the annual salary, cost of benefits (health, dental, employer-paid life insurance and retirement benefits – including employer-paid FICA) and expense reimbursements. In addition, estimate the percent of the employee's annual time that is spent lobbying the state legislature and/or state administrative agencies.

When estimating the percent of time spent on lobbying, include time spent preparing for the legislative session, addressing legislative-related issues with local officials, legislators, state agency staff, other local government representatives, local citizens, and other interested organizations. Be sure to include in the estimate, the time spent working with state administrative agencies on the development and implementation of administrative rules for programs and policies that affect local governments. Also, estimate the amount of employee expense reimbursements that are related to lobbying the legislature and/or state agencies.

Example for calculating the percentage of employee time spent on lobbying efforts

The 2002 regular Legislative session ran from January 29 through May 19, 2002 and the one-day special Legislative session was on September 19, 2002. An employee may have spent 100 percent of his or her time on legislative matters during February through May. This accounts for 33% of their time (100% of 4/12 months). Seventy percent of their time may have been spent on legislative matters during January and June through December. This accounts for 47% of their time (70% of 8/12 months). The annual percentage of this employee's time is 80 percent (.33 +.47) and is reported in column C of the reporting form.

Expenses related to lobbying

Expenses related to lobbying include reimbursements to the employee for items such as travel, food, and the cost of materials.

Total Costs of Employee Lobbying Efforts in 2004

Add the salary and benefits for the employee (A+B), multiply the amount by the percentage of time spent on lobbying (C), then add the expenses related to lobbying (D). The total amount, in dollars is reported in (E).

All other costs related to lobbying services for the year.

List the total costs to the government for lobbying during the year including but not limited to: the actual costs of publication and distribution of each publication in lobbying; other printing; media (including the cost of production); postage; travel fees, including allowances; entertainment; telephone; and other expenses." (Minnesota. Statute. § 10A.04 Subd. 4.) All expenditures for advertising, mailing, research, analysis, compilation and dissemination of information, and public relations campaigns related to legislative action, administrative action, or the official action of metropolitan governmental units in this state. All salaries and administrative expenses attributable to activities of the principal relating to efforts to influence state and local policy. (Minnesota Statute § 10A.04, Subd. 6) Costs of production of material that directly support lobbying, and general administrative and overhead are included as costs. (Minnesota. Rule 4511.0600, subp. 5)

Also include the prorated amount of salary and benefits of those employees who assist in research, administration, communication, and support for lobbying services.

Signature

Have the form signed by the senior elected or administrative official of the local government. Please also print or type the name of the official on the line provided.

Instructions - 2004 Lobbying Cost Reporting Form for Associations of Local Governments

The information for this report is collected under Minnesota Statutes §§ 6.551, 6.52, 6.76, and 16C.05 subd. 5.

Where applicable, please round the amounts to the nearest dollar.

General Information

Include the name and address of the association, the name and contact information for the person completing the form, such as phone and fax numbers and an email address.

Financial Information

Include the total dues paid by all association members, the total revenues of the association (including dues), the total amount the association spent on lobbying, and the proportion of members dues spent on lobbying.

The total amount the association spent on lobbying for the year is the total amount paid for all contracts with lobbying firms plus the costs reported by the association for lobbying by association employees.

Include the proportion (percentage) of members dues spent on lobbying. This is calculated by dividing the total dues paid by all association members by the total amount the association spent on lobbying.

Lobbying Information - Firm

Include the name of the firm and the total contract amount either agreed upon between the association and local government, or the total amount the firm billed to the association for the year.

Include the name of each individual lobbyist that lobbied on behalf of the association.

Provide the amount, in dollars, billed for Lobbying Services by the lobbyist. The State Auditor defines lobbying services as including the following:

- 1) The actual costs of publication and distribution of each publication in lobbying; other printing; media (including the cost of production); postage; travel fees, including allowances; entertainment; telephone; and other expenses." (Minnesota Statute. § 10A.04 Subd. 4.)
- 2) All expenditures for advertising, mailing, research, analysis, compilation and dissemination of information, and public relations campaigns related to legislative action, administrative action, or the official action of metropolitan governmental units in this state. All salaries and administrative expenses attributable to activities of the principal relating to efforts to influence state and local policy. (Minnesota Statute § 10A.04, Subd. 6)

- 3) Costs of production of material that directly support lobbying, and general administrative and overhead are included as costs. (Minnesota. Rule 4511.0600, subp. 5)

Amount billed for Non-Lobbying Services is the amount, in dollars, that the lobbyist billed for non-lobbying services (rounded to the nearest dollar). Non-lobbying services include any additional amount billed by the lobbyist to the association that is not clarified in lobbying services.

Total Amount Billed by Lobbyist should equal the total amount, in dollars, billed to the association by the individual lobbyist. This should be the sum total of lobbying services and non-lobbying services.

Associations with Employees as Lobbyists

List the name of each employee who engages in lobbying services for the association. Include their annual salary amount and the annual cost of benefits (health, dental, employer-paid life insurance and retirement benefits – including employer-paid FICA)

List the amount, in dollars, allocated to the employee for lobbying services (see definition above).

Include the proportion (%) of salary allocated for lobbying services. This is calculated by dividing the salary allocated for lobbying by the total salary amount.

Other Costs Associated with Lobbying Services

Include all costs associated with lobbying services not accounted for in the other categories, including costs associated with other employees of the association, or the lobbying firm. Include all the costs outlined in the lobbying services definition listed above. Do not include the salary and benefits of those previously listed as employee or contract lobbyists.

Also include the prorated amount of salary and benefits of those employees who assist in research, administration, communication, and support for lobbying services.

Association Member Form

List the name of each member of the association.

Include the amount, in dollars, of total dues paid by the individual member.

Calculate the proportion (%) of dues spent on lobbying by dividing the total dues by the members by the total amount the association spent on lobbying.

Provide the actual amount, in dollars, spent on lobbying by the association.
