

Open meeting law	M.S. 471.705	Cities are generally required to open all meetings to the public. State law includes specific requirements for meeting notices, agendas, and minutes. Unlike the Legislature, city officials may be sued for alleged violations. The City does not oppose the intent of the mandate, but rather objects if it is unfunded or underfunded.
------------------	--------------	---