

The State requires pre-sentence investigations for domestic abuse offenders

M.S.
§609.2244

State should require these investigations be conducted by a court-approved mental health provider or a social services agency at the offender’s expense. Community Corrections agencies should not be burdened by this requirement.