

The State requires relative foster care orientation, including cultural diversity, racial bias, etc.

MN
Rule
2960.3
070, subp.
1

Foster care performed by relatives is often the best solution in many cases. These people are related to the subject. Orientation is a very intrusive process and discourages relatives to come forward. The orientation related to cultural sensitivity is unnecessary—these folks are related to one another!