

Collaborative Governance Council
DRAFT Recommendation to Legislature

The Collaborative Governance Council is required by statute to develop recommendations to increase government collaboration in a number of areas, including the use of technology to connect entities and share information. The Council recognizes that the lack of access to high speed broadband can be an impediment to cooperation, collaboration and innovation at all levels of government. Therefore, the Collaborative Governance Council strongly supports the Minnesota Ultra High-Speed Broadband Taskforce Report's recommendations.